

Resulting Image

State of the Fitz-Hugh-Nagumo Reaction Diffusion Process on a  $2048 \times 2048$  lattice after several thousand state transitions. The initial state is basically uniform with a little noise added. The reaction becomes periodic after a while whereby the initial state does not appear again.

See the live demo for an animation.